FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

State Route 220-J-Mack Ferry Returned to Service Emergency Repairs Completed-May 18, 2017

SOLANO COUNTY – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) has returned the J-Mack Ferry on State Route 220 (SR-220) to service after completing emergency repairs to the boat's underwater cable and after the boat passed mandatory U.S. Coast Guard inspections.

The J-Mack Ferry was returned to service on Thursday, May 18, 2017 at approximately 4:50 PM.

The ferry was closed the evening of Thursday, April 20, 2017 after the boat's underwater cable was damaged.

The J-Mack Ferry travels across Steamboat Slough between Ryer Island in Solano County and Sacramento County.

It provides around the clock service on State Route 220.

For the latest, please call the Caltrans Ryer Island Ferry Update Line at (510) 622-0120.
